SENILE POLICE FORCE TO CURB MACEDONIANS

Foreign Officers Furnished with Very Poor Material to Form an Effective Gendarmerie.

TROOPS HURRYING NORTH

SALONICA, May 7.—The British officers appointed to act with the Macedonian gendarmerie have arrived here—four tall guardsmen, with infantry major in command. The hall of the hotel was blocked with gun cases, fishing rods, and saddles, and there was an indescribable air of British aloofness and self-reliance about the new arrivals.

The force which it is their task to reorganize with the help of their Austrian, Italian, French, and Russian comrades consists chiefly of old soldiers from the Turkish army, who have obtained their appointments in most cases through interest. Drafted from the ranks years ago, and stationed in out-of-the-way villages, many of the officers and men have gradually sunk into senile decay, and are physically long past active service.

As their pay undergoes a shrinking process at the hands of the officials through which it passes, they naturally supplement it by demanding money or food from the villagers.

Were it not for the overwhelming force of Turkish troops in Macedonia, the gendarmerie would be very soon disposed of by the turbulent population. It is a significant fact that the Turkish Bulgarian treaty notwithstanding, all travelers from the north tell of the troop trains they passed, hurrying Turkish regiments on to the frontier. Indeed, the general impressions of all travelers from Vienna to Salonika are that matters are rapidly coming to a head.

On the Serbian railways the station buffet contractors are laying in large supplies of food, as they anticipate a movement of Austrian troops across Serbia. The Serbians have erected the grand jury, but redoubts on their side, clearly showing that they regard some such event as possible.

On the Turkish side of the frontier few preparations are visible to the railway traveler, but the closely-guarded line, with its sentry on every curve and its detached post on every bridge, as well as the hurrying troop trains all tell the same story.

POLICEMEN INDICTED FOR ELECTION PLOT

JOLIET, Ill., May 7.—Mayor William C. Crotch, three police officers and one citizen were indicted today for conspiracy. The policemen were also held for alleged intimidation of voters. The case grows out of an election in the first ward. The mayor and police officers are alleged to have interfered with a number of Republican voters, by threats and other means, were prevented from voting. The mayor attempted to present evidence before the grand jury, but the jurors decided it was rebuttal evidence and refused to hear him.

BURGLARY INSURANCE AT CHICAGO UNPROFITABLE

Proposed Raising of the Rates Brings to Light Some Startling Facts.

CHICAGO, May 7.—The activity of burglars has made burglary insurance in Chicago unprofitable to the companies that have been placing it. The announcement that a new high schedule of rates on burglary insurance will go into effect here on June 1 has brought to light some startling facts in connection with this class of insurance.

Representatives of prominent insurance companies acknowledge that in the last ten years the Chicago agencies handling burglary insurance have sustained a loss of from $3,000 to $8,000 in spite of the fact that the rates here are from 20 to 30 per cent. higher than in New York, Philadelphia and other large cities.

During the last five years the number of burglaries and thefts in Chicago has increased with an alarming extent, insurance men say. Several companies have either stopped taking risks or have transferred their business to some other company.

MARRIED MEN WILL GET THE BEST PLACES

Des Moines Postmaster Follows Out President Roosevelt's Large Families Idea.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 7.—"Hereafter preference will be shown to clerks who are married, especially those with larger families."

BODY OF MISS MARSH FOUND IN THE RIVER

KEOKUK, May 7.—The body of Miss Clara Marsh, of Warsaw, Ill., was found this morning floating in the Mississippi river at Canton, Mo. ## Negro Murderer Caught.

CHICAGO, May 7.—Cornelius Butler, a negro, was arrested in this city to-day on a warrant issued by the authorities of Brookhaven, Miss. Butler is said to be implicated in the killing of two persons and the probable fatal injury of another, as the result of a feud between a score of negro families. Butler confessed to the shooting of one man when locked up at the central police station.

CORRESPONDENTS STILL BARRED FROM LIAO-YANG

Foreign Newspaper Men Permitted to Go No Farther Than Mukden.

PASSING OF TROOP TRAINS

MUKDEN, May 7.—Still no foreign newspaper correspondents are allowed at Liao-Yang, where all the foreign attaches are detained. Captain William V. Judson, of the engineer corps, U. S. A., who is to accompany the Russian army during hostilities, and Lieutenant Newton A. McCully, the United States naval attaché, and others have been provided with quarters there. The men on the troop trains passing through Mukden on their way to the front are in excellent spirits and express confidence in Russia's eventual success. They ask their officers when they may expect to reach Japan and already want to know the Japanese names for tobacco, tea and other articles.

Picture scenes are frequently witnessed at the wayside stations, where the troops frequently remain over night. The soldiers are drawn up on the platforms, the bugles sound and then all uncover as the priest utters the evening prayer. Then the troops in each car, led by a tenor voice, break out into folk songs. "The Chinese villagers with whom the soldiers quickly make friends, gather about listening; to the songs, which are mostly plaintive airs. The men, many of whom have been forty days on trains on their way from the interior of Russia, are always cheerful and join heartily in the songs. The same good humor is shown by the troops after tiring marches through blinding dust storms and in the heat which is daily becoming more intense.

The Chinese commander of the district, accompanied by an escort attired in barbaric uniforms which contrasted strongly with their modern arms, waited at the station at Djandzun for an interview with General Kuropatkin, who later reviewed the troops.

NASI TO BE TRIED IN CRIMINAL COURT

The Chamber also authorized his arrest, but Nasi has fled abroad. It is said he has gone to Switzerland, though no one seems to know his exact whereabouts.

OFFICES SOLD IN KOREA TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER

Prefectships Command $5,000 to $10,000 and Much More Asked for Governorships.

MONEY PUT TO BASE USE

SEOUL, May 7.—Yi Yung Tae, the new minister of the home department, has reopened the sale of public office, which has been discontinued for some time through fear of Japanese intervention. Regaining confidence from the fact that no drastic reforms have followed the signing of the protocol during the Marquis Ito's recent diplomatic visit to the Emperor, the palace harpies have recommenced their malpractice. The Japanese authorities are not likely to interfere at present, desiring to completely consolidate all parties while still suspicious of the Emperor's position or possibly they are allowing things to run from bad to worse until it is imperative to intervene with a heavy hand.

Prefectships command from $5,000 to $10,000, according to the reputation the districts have for squeezing possibilities. Governorships are higher priced. The Emperor uses the funds so obtained for secret intrigues and to entice political refugees living in Japan to return to Korea, where instant execution would clean up old grudges, the settlement of which has been the Emperor's great ambition for many years past.

The Emperor of Korea has subscribed $500 to the fund for the memorial day in remembrance of Japanese soldiers and sailors who have fallen in this war.

The Korean government has appropriated $10,000 for repairing the old east palace recently damaged by fire.
